

METHODIST CHURCH
 "The Old Book Stand?" is subject for next Sunday evening discourse. Whether under the acid test of modern criticism, the devastations of war, the rapidly changing order and tides of worldliness sweeping away all moral restraints the Book of God will weather the storms and come out victorious. The simple minded money-mad, pleasure-crazy passers-by may pass the whole thing up without a thought, but those who think will stop and ponder. Come out of the American Legion Hall Sunday night and hear something worth while.
 Holy Communion, Sunday evening.
 Sunday School at 9:45.

KEYSTONE HIBLE SCHOOL
 Beginning June 3, the Keystone Sunday school will be held at 9:45 a. m. in the new Community Hall, on the east side of Main street boulevard, about a block south of Carson street. Trained teachers for all ages. Everybody invited. Come and bring the children. A short preaching service will follow.

LOMITA COMMUNITY CHURCH
 An Echo meeting of the late State Christian Endeavor Convention was held at the evening service. Helpful and interesting talks were given by Miss Elsie Applin, President of the Lomita Intermediate C. E. Society, by Mrs. Ella B. Miller, Miss Lydia Smith, Miss Louise Cotton, Mrs. Walter Tappin sr., and Rev. E. E. Clark. All agreed that the Convention had been worth while and that great good had been accomplished. Next year's convention will be held in San Jose.
 In the morning, the pastor spoke on "The Consequences of Truth." An impressive dust was sung by Mrs. Bromley and Mrs. Ella B. Miller.
 The Lord's Supper was observed at the close of the service.
